

Find out why more than 400 startups and over 90 private equity firms chose GCG

Services for Emerging Companies

GCG provides you with an optimized operations strategy, standards, procedures and targeted resource support, along with a full range of financial, accounting, human resource and administration management services. Each service area is staffed with highly qualified, experienced professionals with proven track records.

Financial consulting and services

- Strategic consultation to management
- Equity/debt fundraising
- Business plans and investor presentations
- Financial modeling/forecasts
- Board presentations and packages
- Merger and acquisition support
- Due diligence
- Pre-IPO preparation
- Audit preparation
- Forensic accounting
- Internal controls
- Restructuring
- Establishing and managing the finance and accounting functions
- Vendor selection and management: banking, accounting, leasing, etc.
- Development of capitalization tables and stock option plans
- Implementing technical accounting rules such as stock option valuation models, capitalization of software and implementation costs, and accounting for derivatives

Full-service accounting and controls: interim and part-time

- CFO
- Controller
- Accounting manager
- Staff accounting/daily bookkeeping

International

- Strategic consultation to management
- Equity/debt fundraising
- Business plans and investor presentations
- Financial modeling/forecasts
- Board presentations and packages

Merger and acquisition support

- Due diligence
- Internal controls
- Connections to local professional service firms and facilitators
- Organization of set-up, entity structuring, taxation issues, and registrations
- Consolidations and foreign currency translations
- Establishing and managing the finance and accounting functions

Learn more about GCG's unique offerings online at www.greenoughgroup.com